Quick Change for Champ

Barton family gives Champ Pegasus every chance to succeed

Richard and Beth Barton

ONCE RICHARD BARTON sees a good deal, he doesn't waste any time. He acquired his stallion prospect Champ Pegasus in one day and a farm for the stallion in about a week.

The farm, now called Barton Thoroughbreds, was previously Magali Farms, one of the standout properties in California's Santa Ynez Valley. Before that it was the late Richard Eamer's Mandysland Farm. In between the Mandysland and Magali iterations, it housed Arabian horses.

Barton and his wife, Beth, live in Riverside, Calif., near California Packaging, their cardboard packaging business that has divisions in Ontario, Calif., and Salt Lake City. The Bartons also own a ranch in Utah.

The Bartons have six adult children, and their youngest, Kate, now 27, has inherited her parents' enthusiasm for racing. She serves as the Bartons' racing manager, and she also sits on the board of the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association.

The team includes Mike Machowsky, who trains most of the Bartons' runners, and Kevin Dickson, Barton Thoroughbreds' farm manager. Dickson brings decades of experience, having managed the Vessels family's Vessels Stallion Farm, a longtime major Quarter Horse operation in California that later stood Thoroughbreds such as In Excess and Free House.

Though Barton Thoroughbreds stands several stallions, both their own and for clients, the Bartons are currently building their program around millionaire Champ Pegasus. His first foals have reached the races this year, and he ranks second among first-crop sires in California, behind only Smiling Tiger.

That prompted their move to acquire a farm.

"We were actually looking at another property near Lodi," said Kate. "We were thinking about growth, and we realized that it wouldn't have everything that we would need."

The Bartons owned the stallion Atticus, who stood at Magali, and they had boarded mares there. In conversations with Magali owners Rich and Gaby Sulpizio, the idea of buying the nearly 200-acre farm arose.

“Honestly, it happened in a period of about a week,” said Kate. “We drove up there and entered escrow that day. I don’t think we could have picked a more beautiful area for a farm.”

In recent years the Bartons have been purchasing mares at Kentucky sales to breed to Champ Pegasus. They brought the mares to California to foal, making those Kentucky-sired offspring eligible for California-bred registration. They bred many of those mares back to Champ Pegasus to support their stallion.

Richard Mandella trained Champ Pegasus, a son of Fusaichi Pegasus—Salt Champ, by Salt Lake. Over three seasons Champ Pegasus won such races as the 2010 Clement L. Hirsch Memorial Turf Championship (G1T) at Hollywood Park, the Del Mar Handicap (G2T), and the 2011 San Luis Obispo Stakes (G2T) at Santa Anita. He finished second in the 2010

Kate Barton serves as racing manager

Emirates Airline Breeders’ Cup Turf (G1T) to European invader Dangerous Midge at Churchill Downs.

“Richard Mandella approached me and told me that Champ Pegasus was being retired,” said Richard Barton.

Mandella suggested Champ Pegasus would be a good addition to California’s stallion ranks. The horse’s record, along with Mandella’s Hall of Fame reputation, made it an easy decision for the Bartons.

“In one day we bought the horse,” said Barton.

The Bartons stood Champ Pegasus at Legacy Ranch since his retirement from racing, and the stallion has moved to the new farm for the 2018 breeding season.

“He’s enjoying his job as a stallion,” said Kate. “He’s pretty easy to handle, and he’s done well with the transition to the new farm.”

Champ Pegasus had his first winner June 2 when Barton homebred Schulace won at Santa Anita. Schulace then finished second in the Everett Nevin Stakes at Pleasanton. Another Champ Pegasus Barton homebred, Utah Ute, broke his maiden at Los Alamitos July 13 and won again at Santa Anita Oct. 5. Shockazulu, bred by the Bartons and owned by Steve Moger, broke his maiden at Santa Rosa Aug. 12.

Special Note For Sire Lists:

For stallions that stand, will stand, or stood (deceased) in the states featured in this section (stallions that are dead or exported prior to 2012 are excluded), and have runners in North America. Listed below are all available statistics for the Northern Hemisphere through November 5, 2017. As supplied to BloodHorse by The Jockey Club Information Systems Inc., include adjusted money from Japan, Hong Kong, and Singapore. Adjusted earnings are put on par with average North American earnings from the previous year. For example, the average North American purse in 2015 is $21,782 or 50% of the 2015 average purse in Japan. To put earnings on par, all Japanese progeny earnings are multiplied by 50% before being credited to a sire’s progeny earnings. Hong Kong earnings are adjusted by 17%; Singapore by 57%. Current year stakes winners include all N.H.-foaled stakes winners worldwide and any S.H.-foaled horses that won a N.H. stakes. *Foal counts include Southern Hemisphere. Cumulative stakes winners includes all countries. (A † indicates a sire represented by his first crop to race).

*AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX and COMPARABLE INDEX: Lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX indicates how much purse money the progeny of one sire has earned in relation to the average earnings of all runners in the same years; average earnings of all runners in any year is represented by an index of 1.00; COMPARABLE INDEX indicates the average earnings of progeny produced from mares bred to one sire, when these same mares were bred to other sires. Only 32% of all sires have a lifetime AVERAGE-EARNINGS INDEX higher than their mares’ COMPARABLE INDEX.

STANFORD WIRES THE HARLAN'S HOLIDAY

Stanford (Malibu Moon) may have stamped his ticket to the $12-million GI Pegasus World Cup Jan. 28 with a decisive gate-to-wire victory in Gulfstream's GIII Harlan's Holiday Stakes ... ticked off comfortable opening fractions of :24.61, :48.94 and 1:12.46 under a motionless John Velazquez. Showing the way into the lane, the bay readily responded when asked for more by his Hall of Fame pilot, skipping away from his rivals to win by three lengths.

STANFORD USES SPEED TO CAPTURE CHARLES TOWN CLASSIC

Charles Town, W.Va. - Trainer Todd Pletcher said earlier in the week he thought Stanford was a good fit for the Grade 2 Charles Town Classic because of his tactical speed ... Stanford rolled to the lead under Javier Castellano at the outset of the $1.25 million Classic and was never headed ... was able to open a clear lead entering the stretch and ultimately scored by two lengths.

Formerly Magali Farms, Barton Thoroughbreds is a standout property in the Santa Ynez Valley

2-year-olds, especially because they are bred to go a little bit longer, with Fusaichi Pegasus in Champ's pedigree and Champ himself," said Kate. "Champ raced long on the turf and dirt."

Machowsky trains Schulace and Utah Ute. The Bartons also have horses with Rene Amescua and Jedd Josephson in Northern California.

"My dad had a mutual, longtime friend who introduced him to Mike about eight years ago," said Kate. "He's great and has helped us along the way."

Machowsky also trains Barton homebred Drizzy, a 2-year-old Cal-bred son of English Channel. Drizzy finished third in both the Graduation Stakes and I'm Smokin Stakes at Del Mar. He is out of the Beautiful Crown mare Grant Marty a Wish. Richard Barton bought the mare at the 2014 Keeneland fall mixed sale. She was carrying Drizzy at the time and cost $17,000.

Once the Bartons purchased Magali, they began to consolidate all of their horses there. Most of the Magali employees accepted the Bartons' offer to remain with the farm, and the Bartons brought on Dickson as the farm manager.

Dickson managed Vessels Stallion Farm when it was one of the leading racing Quarter Horse operations in the country. He and the late Scoop Vessels oversaw the sire career of champion Quarter Horse sire First Down Dash, as well as Thoroughbred stars In Excess and Free House. More recently, Dickson has helped with successful California Thoroughbred sire Square Eddie at the property, now called Ocean Breeze Ranch.

"Vessels prepared me very well," said Dickson. "In its heyday, there were 600 resident horses there year-round. Ocean Breeze was very nice as more of a private facility, and they were incredible to me. It was very difficult to leave."

Kevin and Balinda Dickson's daughter, Hannah, is currently a senior in high school, and the family sees the Santa Ynez Valley as a better location for Hannah's rodeo interests as well as her future college career. Nearby Cuesta College and Cal Poly San Luis Obispo both have excellent rodeo programs.

"We were lucky to get someone of Kevin's caliber," said Kate.

Dickson said that the former Magali employees have jumped right in to help, especially Lacey Coler, the office manager. Coler, the daughter of the late jockey Jerry Lambert, who rode the legendary Cal-bred Native Diver, has been with the farm for many years.

"It's an excellent crew," said Dickson. "They are very good at what they do. Lacey has been absolutely incredible. She has worked many hours to make this transition smooth."

Orlando Gonzalez, Machowsky's longtime assistant, came aboard as the lay-up

Kevin Dickson brings years of experience as farm manager manager.

“He’s a great guy and a really knowledgeable horseman,” said Dickson.

Barton Thoroughbreds offers a complete array of services on the breeding side, and it is also emphasizing its lay-up services. The farm’s location, near Alamo Pintado Equine Medical Center, is ideal for horses needing veterinary care as well as for those that just need some time away from the track.

Dr. Ed Hamer of Alamo Pintado was Magali’s primary veterinarian and has continued serving the Bartons and Dickson.

“We’ve added some sand paddocks,” said Kate. “That gives horses some time to have the sun on their backs and maybe go barefoot for a little bit. We’re installing a new Eurocizer, and we’re also looking at options for a new barn. We see this as a growth area for us.”

To focus on the lay-ups, the Bartons have closed the farm’s racetrack and will not be offering breaking and training at this time.

Trainer Bob Baffert has sent several lay-ups to Barton Thoroughbreds, and the farm also has horses for trainers Ron Ellis, Doug O’Neill, Neil Drysdale, and Machowsky.

“The trainers like the good air and clean water for the horses,” said Richard Barton. “We have a lot of grass paddocks. One of the best things about the ranch is it sits on top of a big aquifer. We have our own pumps, and so we get as much water as we want.”

The Bartons plan to build a house there for themselves. The farm currently has a house on it for the manager, and some of the employees live on the property. The house will be a welcome addition because the traffic from Riverside through the Los Angeles area can make for a lengthy drive to the Santa Ynez Valley.

Kate, a native Californian, joined her father’s business after getting a degree in business and marketing from Cal State San Bernardino. She played on the university’s varsity volleyball team, and her interest in sports led her to enjoy the races with her parents. She obtained an MBA from California Baptist University.

About five years ago Kate attended a CTBA sale with her father. She picked out a few horses and began studying pedigrees, becoming more involved as their horse business expanded.

“I think my dad liked that there was someone in the family who would talk to him about pedigrees and be excited about going back to sales,” said Kate. “I remember I would make an Excel sheet about who he should go look at during the Barretts sales. I think when it finally hit me that I just loved it was when I went back to Keeneland for the first time for a November sale.”

Kate’s tenure on the CTBA board began last year, when she was appointed to fill a vacancy.

“I was honored that they thought of me and asked me,” said Kate. “I’ve learned a lot. It helps me feel a lot more involved in terms of what is happening in our state.”

The Bartons currently own about 225 mares and have made some savvy purchases.

“We started buying mares in foal to Kentucky sires,” said Kate. “We saw the value that we could get, foaling them here in California.”

They paid just $4,700 for Diva’s Tribute, in foal to Strong Mandate, and the mare is now the dam of Spectator (by Jimmy

Spectator winning the 2017 Sorrento Stakes at Del Mar

Creed), winner of the 2017 Sorrento Stakes (G2) and third in the Del Mar Debutante Stakes (G1). Diva's Tribute's Strong Mandate colt is a yearling in Florida. The mare had a filly by Champ Pegasus this year and is back in foal to him.

For just $1,000 at a 2011 Barretts sale the Bartons purchased Cal-bred Tiz a Mistress. The mare's 2010 Ministers Wild Cat colt, Cal-bred Tiz a Minister, won the 2013 Affirmed Handicap (G3) and earned $481,530. Tiz a Mistress is in Kentucky, in foal to Awesome Again.

At last November's Keeneland mixed sale the Bartons bought the mare Tart's Knickers, in foal to Cairo Prince, for $18,000. The mare produced a colt this year, and a full sister to that youngster sold for $160,000 at the 2017 Keeneland September yearling sale.

Richard Barton likes to claim mares as well. Last March he claimed Algorhythmic, a Cal-bred daughter of Vronsky—Thorellen, by Swiss Yodeler, and she has since won four consecutive races under Machowsky's care.

The Bartons sell homebreds they feel are marketable though they keep some to race themselves. For example, a Cal-bred yearling colt by Mucho Macho Man out of Longing, a City Zip mare the Bartons bought at Keeneland in 2014 for $2,500, sold for $120,000 at this year's Barretts select yearling sale.

While some of these mares will go to Champ Pegasus, Barton Thoroughbreds is also standing Dads Caps.

The 7-year-old multiple graded stakes winner is by Discreet Cat—Seeking the Silver, by Grindstone. He is a half brother to Paulassilverlining, a millionaire who finished third in last year's Breeders' Cup Filly & Mare Sprint (G1) and whose wins this year include two grade 1 races in Kentucky.

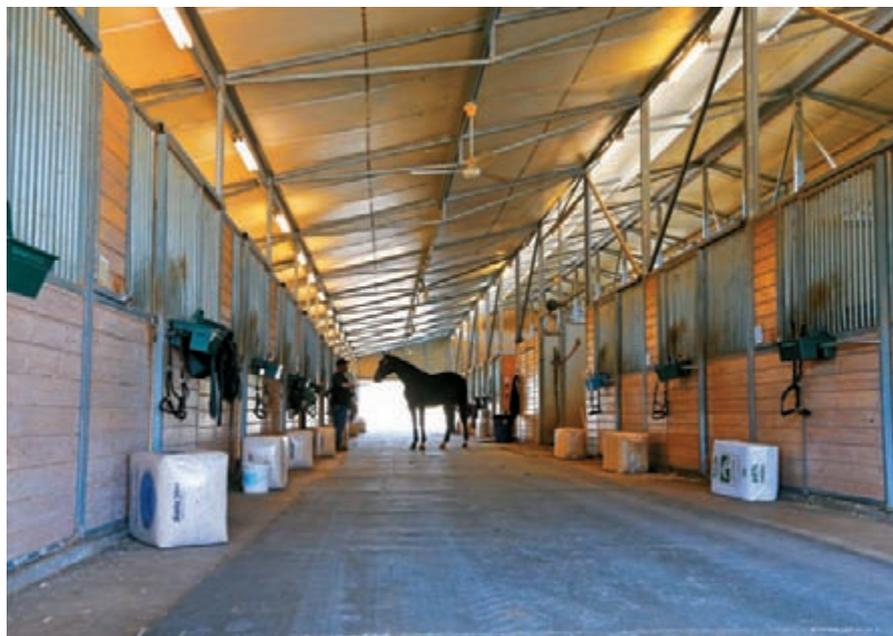

Atticus is the Bartons' most senior stallion. The 25-year-old son of Nureyev—Athyka, by Secretariat, earned $1,205,933 on the track. Atticus won group or graded events in France, Kentucky, Arkansas, and California, and he set a world record of 1:31.89 for a mile on turf at Santa Anita.

Coil also stands at Barton Thoroughbreds, having retired to stud at Magali. Mike Pegram, Karl Watson, and Paul Weitman own the 9-year-old son of Point Given—Eversmile, by Theatrical. Coil earned $1,154,360 and won such races as the 2011 Haskell Invitational Stakes (G1) and 2012 Santa Anita Sprint Championship Stakes (G1).

The Bartons are looking forward to building on what Magali has already accomplished and adding even more improvements. They are devoted to breeding and raising top runners in California.

"The incentive program is driving us to buy these horses in Kentucky and bring them to California," said Kate. "The Cal-bred program is exactly why we're doing what we're doing and why we wanted to buy a farm in California." BH
