BARTON THOROUGHBREDS: SOARING TO NEW HEIGHTS

By TRACY GANTZ

B ARTON THOROUGHBREDS IS HAVING A breakout season in 2023, but it has been years in the making. A methodical plan of amassing a broodmare band and constant reevaluation of those mares have put Barton atop the list of California breeders.

Those mares are producing stakes-caliber runners, and because Barton markets virtually all of its crop, the racehorses are coming from a wide variety of programs from coast to coast. Most remain in California, another key component because Barton fully supports the California-bred incentive program, which rewards breeders, owners, and stallion owners.

Pushiness embodies the scope of the Barton operation. The California-bred 2-year-old daughter of Kantharos won the California Thoroughbred Breeders' Association Stakes at Del Mar this past summer. Michael McCarthy trains her in California for New York-based owner Repole Stable, which bought her from Barton for $115,000 at the 2022 Fasig-Tipton California Fall Yearlings and Horses of All Ages Sale. Mike Repole has a high national profile with such major runners as Eclipse Award winner Forte, owned in partnership with St. Elias Stable.

Kangaroo Court and Carmelita's Man, the latter bred in partnership with Robert Traynor, are 2023 California stakes winners from the Barton program, while One in Vermillion has won stakes in the Golden Gate State and elsewhere, and Spitten Kitten is a stakes winner in Canada. One in Vermillion is the leading Barton-bred earner, with $564,220 this year. He is a five-time stakes winner, three of those in 2023, including the H. Allen Jerkens Memorial Stakes (G1) at Saratoga.

The Barton name stems from a family who all play major roles in the operation: Richard and Beth Barton and their daughter, Kate Barton Penner. The horses are bred in the name of Richard Barton Enterprises, having been raised and, in most cases, foaled at Barton Thoroughbreds, the family's 200-acre property in Santa Ynez, Calif.

"The decisions on the breeding of these mares were made three to four years ago, so we're just starting to see everything come to fruition," said Penner. "Breeding takes a long time to see your efforts pay off. We've been working hard, and every year we up our quality in terms of the broodmares we've been buying."

Penner manages most of the day-to-day operations, a challenging task considering that she and her husband, Blair Penner, are raising two small children. But Richard and Beth continue to take active roles.

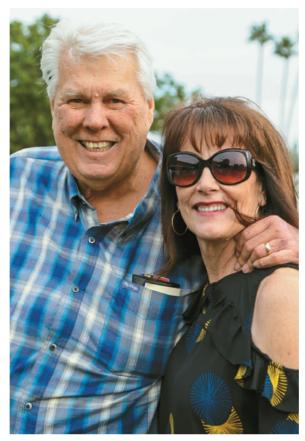

"They are involved, maybe even more so than they have been in the past few years," Penner said. "They enjoy visiting the farm often and are really looking at all the foals and yearlings. My dad has always been very involved, but my mom has become really active in everything that we do. She helps keep tabs on all of our current runners."

Beth knows where all of the Barton-bred horses are running each weekend, useful for managing the business and also for giving them rooting interests as they watch the races on television.

The Bartons and Penners live in the Riverside area, east of Los Angeles County, near California Packaging and Display, their cardboard packaging business. The farm is about 200 miles north in an area that has produced many good racehorses. In previous incarnations, the property was formerly Magali Farms and Mandysland Farm, two premier Thoroughbred operations.

The Bartons have also put together a team at the farm with decades of experience.

Farm manager Kevin Dickson managed Vessels Stallion Farm in Bonsall, Calif., for 21 years when it was a leading Quarter Horse breeding farm that also branched out into Thoroughbreds. In Excess and Free House were among the Thoroughbreds who stood at Vessels. Dickson continued to manage that property after Paul and Zillah Reddam bought it and it became Ocean Breeze Ranch, where leading California stallion Square Eddie stood.

Assisting Dickson at Barton is administrative director Lacey Coler, a daughter of jockey Jerry Lambert; broodmare manager Noel Ortiz-Perez, with more than 15 years of experience in the Thoroughbred industry; and lay-up manager Orlando Gonzalez, a former assistant to trainer Michael Machowsky.

"Kevin has been a key factor in our success," Penner said. "To manage all of these Thoroughbreds along with all of the people is no minor task. We're so grateful to have him on our team. We truly have, I think, the best team. Everyone is very qualified and is so invested in what we are trying to accomplish."

Barton Thoroughbreds now stands five stallions: Cat Burglar, Dads Caps,

One Bad Boy, Tap Back, and—new for 2024—Shaaz. Barton either owns the stallions or acquires an ownership interest in them.

"We do want some type of ownership as an incentive to offer our support from our broodmare band," Penner said. "We want them to succeed just as much as the stallions' owners do."

Dads Caps, a millionaire son of Discreet Cat, is the sire of Kangaroo Court, winner of this year's Echo Eddie Stakes, and stakes-placed Lily Pad Lake and Pops Awesome. Cat Burglar, a stakes-winning son of Unbridled's Song and an earner of $538,720, is among California's leading sires of 2-year-olds and came from the program of owner Michael Lund Petersen and trainer Bob Baffert. That is the same combination behind Adare Manor, a leading contender for this year's Breeders' Cup Distaff (G1).

"One Bad Boy and Tap Back both have had their first crop of foals in 2023," Penner said. "We're really excited with how all of the weanlings look. We'll be bringing the first yearlings to market next year for both of those stallions."

One Bad Boy, a son of Twirling Candy, won the 2019 Queen's Plate and 2020 Lure Stakes. Tap Back is a Calbred son of Einstein—Tap Tap Ur It, by Tapit, and won the 2019 Golden State Juvenile Stakes. Richard Barton bred Tap Back with Adena Springs, and Barton raced him.

Baffert also trained Shaaz for Petersen. A son of Uncle Mo, Shaaz ran third in the 2022 Steve Sexton Mile Stakes (G3) at Lone Star Park after winning his first three races at Santa Anita.

"We're excited to be partners with Michael Lund Petersen again on a second stallion with Shaaz," said Dickson. "He is a stunning individual—he was a

Virginia-bred Shaaz enters stud in 2024 at Barton Thoroughbreds with a listed fee of $5,000

$1.1 million 2-year-old—he is fabulous looking and has such poise and presence. He really is a classy horse."

All of these stallions benefit from Barton's large broodmare band, which numbers about 175. Richard Barton, who "loves to find a good deal," Penner said, has claimed some of them and also found several at bargain prices. Barton has stepped up to buy more expensive mares as well.

They found Given Star, who was carrying One in Vermillion at the time, for just $4,500 at the 2019 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. Bonus Spin, the dam of Kangaroo Court, cost $7,000 not in foal at the 2017 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale. Imperial Pippin sold for $16,000 while carrying Pushiness at the 2020 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale.

Barton markets its horses, usually keeping and racing only those that don't meet their reserves. At the Fasig-Tipton California Fall Yearlings and Horses of Racing Age Sale in September, they sold five horses for six figures each, including the top-priced filly, a daughter of Improbable—Diva's Tribute, by Henny Hughes, for $200,000.

Barton was the leading consignor at the Fasig-Tipton sale, with 30 horses grossing $1,378,000 and averaging $45,933.

"We had our highest yearling average and gross to date," Penner said.

Barton also took a large consignment to the California Thoroughbred Breeders Association's Northern California sale. They were the third-leading consignor there, behind only Lovacres Ranch and Harris Farms, two longtime leading California operations.

Barton sells with other consignors at sales in Arizona and Washington and occasionally at Keeneland in September and November. Through Few Acre Farm, Barton sold three stakes winners at the 2021 Arizona Thoroughbred Breeders Association Fall Mixed Sale: One in Vermillion to Jonathan Kalman for $26,000, Kangaroo Court to George Sharp for $7,500, and Spitten Kitten to Marvin and Deb Buffalo for $2,500.

"Everyone at the farm looks forward to sale season," Penner said. "They take so much pride in the babies that we take to the sales. It's really fun to see everyone's hard work pay off because no corners are cut. It's nice for the guys to know that what they do matters."

Sending yearlings to several sales has worked well for Barton.

"We like to split up our yearlings because it's hard to put so many in one sale," Penner said.

Because not all of the Barton offerings reached their reserves, Penner noted that "we'll have some nice horses to race."

While the Bartons acquired one of the top farms in California, they are continuously making improvements. They eliminated the training track and have redone about 30 acres of pasture on the lay-up side. Penner said they have added many therapeutic regimens for their lay-up clients.

"We have an AquaTred, a European walker, and a whole vibe stall," she said. "It's a great place for R&R, to get up to the valley."

Dickson said that about 160 acres are devoted to the breeding side, while about 40 acres are used for lay-ups.

"We've listened to the trainers," said Dickson about the farm improvements. "Several of them said that they wanted sand pens for horses that come up here with feet issues. So, we converted a couple of small paddocks into sand-pen paddocks. We have a lot of grass, and a lot of folks obviously like to turn a horse

Grade 1 winner One in Vermillion was in utero when the Bartons purchased her dam, Given Star, for a bargain $4,500 at auction in 2019

out for some time away from the track."

Dickson and the Bartons have varied the sizes of the grass paddocks so that the farm can accommodate whatever a lay-up needs. The farm is often the next step in the post-surgery recuperation process for horses from many of Southern California's equine hospitals, including Alamo Pintado Equine Medical Center just a few miles away.

Still, it is the breeding side that keeps everyone the busiest. With sales about done for this year, the Bartons, Dickson, and the rest of the farm personnel are gearing up for another big breeding season, not to mention monitoring how this year's sale horses turn out for the buyers.

"My mom always talks about how she's just as happy to see them succeed even when we aren't owning them as when we do own them ourselves," Penner said. "We're just honored to be a part of their journey to where they are now."
